

Big Doings in Joshua Tree

Fiesta Days, Pioneer Days, Mardi Gras, etc., can come and go, but TURTLE RACES is one you never forget, for wherever they are held, surely it is enjoyed by all ages.

The Turtle Races which are to be held in Joshua Tree May 12, will be one of the attractions of the Desert you cannot afford to miss. And at this time of year when the Desert is dressed in her gayest raiment of wild flowers, with a snow capped mountain in the distance, it will instill in the hearts of many who have never visited the Desert before a longing to return. That is why WE love the Desert. And do not forget the date, for this is one of the events of the year you will be glad you came to.

Pioneers Speaking of

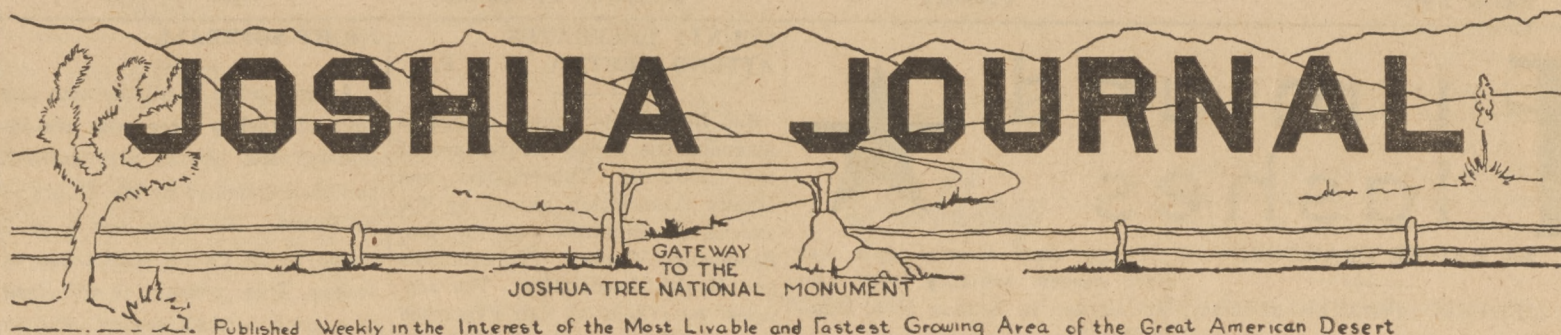

Did I say pioneers? Yes sir, since 1932, almost steadily, but she had her homestead here all that time. And it's none other than Gaby Rorschach, owner of the Gabrielle Shop on 29 Palms highway, 1 mile west of town. It is wonderful the things people can do when they give way to their innermost desires that have been pent up for years, because their business activities in the city were so demanding on their time, especially when one has had a full life in the creative world, but was devoting their talents for the glorification of others. As Gaby is a costume designer, having been associated with Edith Head and Mary K. Dobson at Paramount and Fox Studios. She has converted the front of her little home to the Gabrielle Shop and when you visit there for the first time the surprise is beyond your expectations. And she carries a lovely line of "things." And will do designing and making of dresses or costumes. Can the French do this? I say they can.

Inauguration of State-Wide Medical Security Campaign

A State-wide campaign offering medical economic security to the people of California through voluntary health insurance was announced this week by the California Medical Association through its president, Dr. Philip K. Gilman.

The campaign will be financed and spearheaded by the medical profession, with the support of the insurance industry, and hundreds of civic and fraternal organizations. It will radiate into every section of the State through a series of "Voluntary Health Insurance Weeks" in each of the 58 California counties this year and next.

This will be a crusade to take the economic shock out of illness or injury," Dr. Gilman explained. "The medical profession is contributing heavily, both of its money and its energy, to encourage every California citizen to enroll in a sound voluntary health insurance plan." The California Medical Association goal is to extend membership to as near one hundred per cent of the State's population as it is possible to achieve. Dr. Gilman cited present enrollment figures for the Health

Health Food Store To Open Soon in Joshua Tree

A Health Food Store will be opened on or about May 15th on Commercial Street in Joshua Tree and will be known as the Alice Gray Health-Food Store. It will be operated by Lillian Green, who has had many years experience in this line and having been a Nutritionist and Dietician in New York, Hollywood and Pasadena. Being a far sighted person and an authority on "Man and His Proper Diet," knows the need for Health Food Stores everywhere, and has chosen Joshua Tree for her permanent location.

And let it be known she is a lovely woman, and is mighty welcome addition to the business of Joshua Tree.

NEW CONCRETE BLOCK PLANT IN SUN VALLEY ACRES

Mr. Leo C. Emig, formerly of La Crescenta, California, is here to stay. He and Mrs. Emig and daughter, Ann were here sometime ago. Since that time he has sold his business in La Crescenta, and is starting a cement block and cesspool liner plant at 4-corners in Sun Valley Acres. Mrs. Emig and daughter will join him as soon as school is out. And will make their home in Sun Valley Acres.

and Accident, Hospital and prepaid medical plans was around 3,000,000 at present.

WANTED! HOME FOR CAT AND KITTENS

A lovely cat and her two kittens have been caught in the housing shortage, believe me that is not news, to the most of us—but you see we need the cats as much as they need a home, for they do work for their living and are almost self-supporting, by catching gophers and rodents, so who will give them a home? Mr. A. E. Martois, corner Valley View Circle and Commercial will give you your choice.

HIGHWAY PATROL CLAMPS DOWN

Chief of the California Highway Patrol C. Raymond Cato gave orders to Highway Patrol Officers this week to clamp down on all trucks that are overloaded.

Turtle Races on May 12 Sponsored By C. of C.

Twenty-four Entries, Eight Races, Grand Prix

JOSHUA TREE, Calif., April 20 —Residents of Joshua Tree are busily engaged in grooming their entries for the Turtle Races to be held here Sunday, May 12, under the auspices of the Joshua Tree Chamber of Commerce.

Twenty-four entries will compete in this classic event of racing. Eight races and a Grand Prix will be held in the town square.

If you've never seen a turtle race you just haven't lived. Every entry is suitably decorated with a number and the colors of his stable.

A ten foot circle is drawn in the center of an outer circle 100 ft. in diameter. A jockey holds his "mount" within the inner circle until the starting signal is given, when the turtles are released. Maybe they will move and maybe they won't. It's a certainty they won't until they get good and ready. The winner is the one crossing the outer circle line first.

Upon being released, an entry may not move until the others almost reach the line and then he is apt to start going places in a hurry—turtle hurry, that is. And the late starter MAY win. Anyway its all for fun and fun for all—and all for FREE.

Joshua Tree is 135 miles east of Los Angeles over excellent highways. Take Routes 60, 70 and 99 to Banning. Thence south 14 miles to 29 Palms Junction and left on the 29 Palms Highway to Joshua Tree.

Post time is at 1 p.m.

HOUSING SHORTAGE SOLVED BY HANSON FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hanson, formerly of Huntington Park, California, came to Joshua Tree Saturday to become permanent residents, having bought a part of the Annabelle De Long homestead. And to solve not only the housing shortage, but to overcome other difficulties they are making a home out of two street cars, and from the description of their plans it will be distinctive. And too, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Williams have done the same thing and have the other part of the De Long homestead.

AT DESERTAIRE

Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Brice are guests over the Easter season from Los Angeles, and are at the Desertaire Lodge.

Bunker Business Block Sold to Venice Man

The Bunker business block where Woody's Emperium and the Joshua Tree Electric company is located was sold to Edward Clifford of Venice, California. Mr. Clifford also bought two lots on Elwood Street, where he may build a bungalow court. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford and son, Robert, were here a couple of weeks ago and were so fascinated with Joshua Tree that he returned this week and now is really a part of our rapidly growing community. One of the lots he bought for his son's very own. Robert is 17 years old, and as Mr. Clifford said, "that is the beginning for a solid foundation for the future for Robert."

Mr. Clifford is with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Motion Picture Corporation.

NEW BUILDING SOON

Mrs. Kennie Schmitt is here making plans for her new business building she intends building where she and her son will open a very attractive Desert Shop.

NEW ELECTRIC EQUIPMENT FOR WATER CO.

The Joshua Tree Electric Shop was awarded the contract to install the 75 horsepower pump and motor equipment for the Joshua Tree Service Water Co.

NEW 'SIGNS OF THE TIMES'

Of course you have seen the new Neon sign at the Service Station. That is a sign not only of progress, and beauty, but we can boast of a Neon sign now. And it will not be long and there will be more to light the way to a great future.

Women's Club Notes

The Women's Club of Joshua Tree held its regular monthly meeting April 19th at the Club House. Many articles of business was before the club though the most important, however, was the election of a committee to nominate new officers for the election of the coming year. Those serving on the committee are Mrs. Lehenbaur, chairman, Mrs. Juanita Wagner, and Mrs. Anna Morris. Plans were also discussed for a new membership drive.

Mrs. Thelma Wiser had arranged for Mrs. Gordon Smith of 29 Palms to give some piano selections which were very lovely, and was so thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

There was a very good attendance.

Can Secure Loans up to $10,000 Under G. I. Bill

EDWIN P. WALTERS

Veterans of World War II, holding honorable discharges, are eligible, under the G.I. Bill of Rights, to make application for a loan up to amount of $10,000 for the purpose of buying or building a home that is to be self-occupied.

Under new regulations, banks are prepared to loan on homes costing up to $10,000 (including cost of lot) without a down payment, provided the veteran complies with the requirement of having sufficient income to take care of the interest and amortization of principle payments, and appraisal shows that the property is priced in line with present day costs.

Loans will not be granted for the erection or purchase of business or income property. In the event a self-occupied home, financed through G.I. Home Loan channels, is disposed of at a later date by the owner-veteran, the loan must be refinanced through regular real estate means unless the purchaser is also a qualified veteran, in which case a mortgage transfer may be made and the loan continued under the G. I. Bill of Rights provisions.

These loans may run for as long as 25 years at 4 per cent simple interest and no penalty will be assessed in the event the loan is paid off before maturity date. The first year's interest will be rebated to the borrower by subsequent credit on the principle.

It is important that the entire deal be set prior to contacting the bank or lending agency. If building is intended, control of the site must be obtained and then the plans, specifications and costs, in writing, together with discharge papers, should be submitted to the lending agency.

If the agency's appraiser considers these plans and specifications as representing "reasonable cost," the loan will be approved, other requirements having been fulfilled.

ZIEGFELD FOLLIES of 1946, as premiered to one of Hollywood's most distinguished audiences at the Egyptian Theater, regales the eyes and ears with lilting tunes, beautiful girls, magnificent sets, breath-taking special effects, and imaginative costumes — all in Technicolor. M-G-M thought of everything for this one. Beginning with a glimpse of Florenz Ziegfeld, as acted by William Powell, in Heaven reminiscing about his famous Broadway hits, the show goes on with a parade of stars in 14 acts, including Fred. Astaire, Fanny Brice, Judy Garland, Red Skelton, Edward Arnold, and many others all well known. "This 1946 show is a musical revue Mr. Ziegfeld might have presented if stages were measured in acres . . . and money meant nothing" says LIFE Magazine.

"THE SEVENTH VEIL" now in its 4th week at Carhay Circle, in Los Angeles, also pleases the European audience, according to a report to Lowell E. Redelings, "The Seventh Veil" was a treat. A rare treat to sit through a picture and be entertained, relaxed and uplifted, so to speak. Every player in the picture was intelligent—and was directed as though this were recognized and respected. How refreshing! But it makes one dissatisfied. Do you know why? Because when will we see another one? Even the audience was an inspiration . . . mature persons all interested in the story — quiet and decent." This is a Universal Release.

Eugene List, who played before the BIG THREE in Europe, now interrupts his acting in "The Bachelor's Daughters" to play with the Philadelphia Symphony in Washington. He may play for President Truman again, too.

RANK IN PROPORTION TO PREVIOUS TRAINING

Rank in proportion to their previous training and experience in the Army now may be given to former soldiers upon reenlistment. Even though they have been out over ninety days, in accordance with a new War department directive this order applies to men discharged since May 12, 1945, and will expire on June 30, 1946.

More than 370 job titles are listed and graded according to the length of time the soldier has previously served in that military specialty.

The Army urgently needs men in certain job classifications. In many specialties an ex-serviceman need have but six months of previous experience to return as a corporal or above, with higher grades for experience of 12, 18, 24, or 36 months, however men cannot return to the service with any higher than that held upon discharge, Captain Hal B. Sims, the local recruiting officer announced today.

A complete list of jobs and job titles with the grade of return to service are available at your local recruitin goffice at 490 Court Street, Room No. 10, San Bernardino, Calif.

Bob Hope's next picture will burlesque the crop of hardboiled private detective mystery pictures. It is titled "Private Eye" and in it Hope will be a fellow mistaken for a private detective and is given an interesting assignment, a la Humphrey Bogart and Dick Powell.

Howard Hughes is having the dialogue of "The OUTLAW" translated into Chinese to reach a potential audience of 400,000,000. His picture is going to be shown wherever Hughes airplanes fly, pretty much all over the world.

The Famous night club seen in "Waltz Time" is the foremost night club of old Vienna, "Red Lantern" where the playboys and debs of their day congregated to enjoy wine, women, song, and the then-forbidden waltz. This gay spot was even attended by nobility who often came disguised in masks to enjoy the entertainment their class had forbidden.

COUNTY DELEGATES ATTEND MEETING IN S. F.

San Bernardino County delegates attended the annual conference of the California Tuberculosis and Health Association named by the executive committee of the San Bernardino County Tuberculosis and Health Association. The sessions were held in San Francisco from April 22nd to April 25th, and was of a broader scale than any held since the outbreak of the war and a large representation from all parts of the state was in attendance.

In addition to many nationally known physicians, chest specialists and health educators who appeared on the program was Bertha V. Peterson, executive secretary of the San Bernardino County Association. Her topic was "Planning and Organization of a Case Finding Program."

Those appointed to attend the session from San Bernardino County were Dr. W. W. Fenton, Mrs. J. Clifford Lee, Dr. Julius Zelman, Mrs. Earl E. Berry and Mrs. Peterson.

There are hundreds of physicians and laymen who belong to this National Organization and we surely can be proud that one of San Bernardino County's representatives has so prominent a place on the program.

EARL H. NICHOLS TAKEN BY DEATH

Mr. Earl H. Nichols, prominent Realtor and civic leader of 29 Palms died Thursday evening while driving his car. Hear trouble was the diagnosis of the doctor.

The loss of a true enthusiast as Mr. Nichols was, is felt keenly in a community and casts its shadow in neighboring communities as he will be remembered by residents of Joshua Tree as one who wanted anything that would improve the territory from Highway 99 to 66, which with his keen insight would benefit the community closest to his heart.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. C. L. Sutton, who live in Long Beach and Billie Nichols, who attends Franklin High School there; Mrs. Milton Freeman of Pleasant Grove, Utah, a twin sister; a sister Mrs. Maude Pierce, Clyde and Elmer Nichols brothers all of Hemet; a sister Mrs. Ernestine Wood and her son, Grant of Palm Springs, and a brother Sam Nichols of San Diego.

PARTNERSHIP COMPLETE

Mrs. A. C. Stockton, son Byron and daughter, Paula, together with Mr. Stockton, who is a business associate of Mr. Fred Moninger have rented the Haynes home and are here to stay. They as you know are from Hollywood. Oh, yes, I forgot to mention another member of the family "Black-out" by name, an all-American cat, that came the 135 miles from Hollywood without even a leash or collar on in an open box or rather a box seat, and within a very few minutes was very much at home. Welcome to Joshua Tree folks.

Visitors from Michigan

Guests of Mrs. Grace De Harak, Miss Betty Burrell and Mrs. Maud Dudman at High Time Lodge, were Mrs. Maud Schomp and Miss Grace Reickord from Hastings, Michigan.

Hermosa Beach Folks Here

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Heidenreich of 320 Bay View Drive, Hermosa Beach and Mrs. Heidenreich's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hines of South Gate, California, were here for the Easter weekend, and are very enthusiastic about Joshua Tree, and hope to return soon.

The Easter Bunny Came To Joshua Tree

Norma Campbell spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. La Ferney and her little daughter, Lynn-Catherine who had her first Easter party.

The Easter Bunny really did his part at the "LaFerney Ranch" in making the day a happy one. Her gifts were many. During the afternoon the children had an Easter egg hunt. Norma brought a lovely Easter lily for the occasion from Los Angeles.

Refreshments of fried chicken and home-made ice cream were served. Norma later returned to Los Angeles where she is employed by Dozier, Graham and Eastman Advertising firm.

To Leave For Arrowhead

Charles (Chuck) Turner, son of Mrs. Inez Stoffel, who is with the Smoke Tree Ranch at Palm Springs is soon to leave for Arrowhead. Chuck is a ski enthusiast, having been in tournaments in Colorado, sponsored by the Rocky Mountain Skiing Association. He was also assistant coach of athletics at Steam Boat Springs High School, (Colo.) At Arrowhead he will be trail guide on fishing and hunting trips.

New Comers

Mr. and Mrs. Maberson called on Mr. and Mrs. Pingle who have recently moved to Joshua Tree, and are building a new home.

Easter Breakfast

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haynes were host and hostess at an Easter breakfast. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chester R. Bunker and Col. and Mrs. H. B. Moore, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, all from Los Angeles.

Visiting in Los Angeles

Miss "Jo" Jackson of the Miramonte Courts is in Los Angeles this week on a business and pleasure trip.

Noted Writer Here

Peter Cartwright, author of novels, articles and poetry, spent Easter Sunday in Joshua Tree, together with Oscar B. Olsen, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, and his son Richard S. Olsen, also Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue from Long Beach, Calif. While here they called to see Mr. D. E. Below.

Birthday Celebration

Mrs. Frank Fox had a birthday last week, so she and Mr. Fox drove to Santa Ana to spend the day with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Guslin and their little son Steve who celebrated his second birthday also. Then return Mr. Fox' father, Amos E. Fox returned with them to visit here awhile. Happy Birthday to you Mrs. Fox.

Mrs. Steve Moninger spent Easter here, too.

Col. and Mrs. H. B. Moore arrived Friday evening to spend Easter week end in Joshua Tree and were very well pleased to find the first unit of their six unit bungalow court nearing completion.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weckler, who own the Summerland Cafe in Carpinteria, had an extended camping trip in Joshua Tree to the Monument and Keys View Easter week.

Mr. Claude Hanna and family of Balboa, California, spent Easter in Joshua Tree. Mr. Hanna is in the Escrow Department of the Bank of America and has been making trips out to our desert since 1938 and is keeping a Banker's eye on us.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Yearwood are visiting Joshua Tree indefinitely, and Mr. and Mrs. John Yearwood are visiting for the weekend. They are stopping at Harold Ellis' cabin.

Phyllis Jean, Elsie Irene and Frank Eugene Bryan of Los Angeles are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wiser, their grandparents.

Community Service Club News

The Community Service Club is to be commended on the very nice Club House that is being erected. The Club is in the process of being incorporated and soon will be selling "Baby Bonds" to help finance the finishing of the immense building. The Saturday night dances now being held in the School House are sponsored by this Club. And they are very anxious to complete the Club building as soon as possible to accommodate the crowds that are growing larger all the time.

Next Sunday, April 28th, will be a big day for pouring the concrete for the large piers, and all men are invited to come and offer their services. A free dinner will be served by the ladies of the Club.

Tom and Vi Humphreyville are celebrating the return of their son, Tommy from the service. We all join them with good wishes, for Tommy is very well liked in our community. He was in the city first though visiting with his little family that carried on while he was in the service.

The Rainbow's End

To quote from a book or a letter is a lazy man's way to do; you see it saves TIME and ENERGY, and GRAY MATTER. But—we ask your forgiveness. It is not because of our shortcomings, we take the line of least resistance, but, to quote from a letter that was received in the JOURNAL Office this week—well, it really is because we could not have done as well if we had tried:

"On a rainy day in March my wife, nephew and I drove from El Monte to your city, where we found the sun shining and a gorgeous rainbow entwined in and out among the mountain peaks, and the sky at mid-afternoon so clear. And then came the glorious sunset.

"We were amazed at the growth since our last visit in April of 1944, when we decided to have a little corner of Joshua Tree and we are so proud and happy that we have an interest in such a beautiful spot."

Can you wonder now that I used this letter for my theme?

"A gorgeous rainbow." Yes, we remember the stories of the pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow—but we never even thought we would find the foot of the rainbow, it always seemed so far away, but it is as close to us as our shadow, here in Joshua Tree.

You see it is that pot of gold man has been seeking through all the years that is the impetus of the pioneer spirit, and so recently we have begun to realize that all this time the Rainbow's end was in the Desert. It is here that poets have sung out their glorious words of praise, painters have tried to mock its beauty on canvas, novelists have written love stories born of the Desert—but only those who have come to the desert have found the end of the Rainbow.

Flying News From 'K' Field

Jack Cones and Bill Putnam flew into Long Beach to view the new Piper Cub Super Cruiser.

Chief interest this week centered around soaring thermals above Violet dry lake. "Doc" McKittrick had his first ride with Wally Wiberg at the controls. Frank Wolcott, formerly associated with instructing at the Twenty-nine Palms Air Academy, soared the Pratt Reed Sailplane for one hour and five minutes. Frank will soon take up residence in this desert area. Others, who enjoyed soaring or just watching the graceful motions of the sailplane, were: Stan Polish and family of Tujunga. Stan is project Engineer for Radio Plane Corp., in Los Angeles; Ralph McGraw and family of Van Nuys; Mrs. "Doc" McKittrick, Miss Judy LaFerrney, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Geis and daughter Suzanne, and a possessor of a magnificent red beard, one "Gid" King. Gayle and "Red" took turns at the controls of the Piper Cub.

Dick Sullivan gave a fine performance in the Piper Cub for his dad and Dick Mayo had his last flight before joining the Navy.

Out to look over the Sailplane and fly the Piper Cub was Lt. Miller from the Navy base, and L. S. Bartell from Ann Arbor, Mich.

Doctor Wolfgang Klemperer and family paid a visit. Doctor Klemperer is an engineer for Douglas Aircraft. He was the first man in Germany to obtain a soaring pilots license.

EDITOR'S MAIL BAG

Joshua Journal,
Joshua Tree, Calif.
Gentlemen:

Sometime Saturday, night or early Easter Sunday morning our baby slipped out the window at Bloom's, where we were staying, and we had to leave Sunday night without her — naturally we are rather blue.

I can't imagine why it didn't occur to me to notify the folks at the paper because it is very conceivable that someone finding her might ask you folks about it. I DID think to put a notice on the bulletin board that if anyone finding her would take her to the Bloom's, they have agreed to take her until someone coming to Los Angeles can bring her down.

She is a very beautiful Tortoise Shell Persian female cat—body a very dark brown with orange streaks in it—white under the chin and white paws—and very, VERY timid of people and things in general. When we got her she was a tiny ball that had been badly abused and was so afraid of people that I never saw her close her eyes for three weeks. At the end of a year she had picked up beautifully physically; was beginning to eye us as though we might not decapitate her on sight, but still could not be picked up much, and fled instantly at the sound of visitors. Now, at 2 years of age, she rules our roost, treats us like the dirt under her feet, and is the most intelligent and affectionate thing you ever saw—with us. She tolerates stranger in the home, and even occasionally will wander close enough to one to be picked up, but I am terribly afraid that out in the open for a short time only hunger will drive her back to civilization—and we cannot help being concerned about her.

Naturally we want her back—badly—but if someone finds her who feels that "finders is keepers" and would give her a good home and be very good to her, why if they would at least just let us know that she is safe and well, and maybe visit her on our next trip up, which probably could not be for many months, we would certainly appreciate it. Incidentally she has been raised on raw and cooked horse meat, liver and heart mixed with bran, and to date will eat practically nothing else (more fun.)

Will appreciate greatly anything you can do to get the word around.

Sincerely,

MR. AND MRS. G. W. COLLET

Wonderland of Books

By WILLIAM ROWE

We, the citizens of Joshua Tree and neighboring towns and country-side, are fortunate, indeed, to be living at the gateway to a wonderful domain, The Joshua Tree National Monument. This great and beautiful park - land, larger by one hundred thousand acres than the state of Rhode Island, was set aside by our National Government principally for the preservation of the Joshua tree from the destructiveness of man. But aside from the Joshua tree and other beautiful and interesting desert vegetation, the charm of the Park is enhanced by its weird and fantastic rock formations.

As you drive through the well-named "Wonderland of Rocks" your imagination becomes active, provided you have imagination in your mental make-up. Here in this veritable fairy-land you should forget your cares of yesterday and your worries for tomorrow and let your imagination run riot. There is much in the huge piles or hills of massive granite rocks to stir the imagination. Now and then you see rocks formed and laid in such a smooth and wall-like conformation that you can well imagine you are looking at the handiwork of human beings. You see giant rocks, the face of which are etched with lines so straight that it is difficult to believe that Nature was the artist. Again you find rocks split so perfectly that it would seem that they were cut by instruments of great precision. The so-named "Split Rock" is the largest and best example of this imaginative craftsmanship. And so in viewing these wonders of the rocks, you might well see in your imagination giant human beings in habiting these lands thousands of years ago, busying themselves in building walls, building castles of rock.

There is another pastime of imagination to be found in the searching of Nature's fantastic carvings of the rocks for stone faces and animal creatures: In Hidden Valley there are several well-known nature carvings first named in an article written by Walter Ford and published in Nature Magazine of October, 1938. There is the "Trojan" to be seen to the right, after entering the Valley, so-called because of the resemblance to a warrior of ancient Troy. There is another formation called "Sleeping Simon" a figure apparently napping under the desert sun. And what is said to be one of the most realistic of these Nature carvings is that of a stone bull resting on a stratified throne at a high point overlooking the valley.

There are many more faces and figures to be found in Hidden Valley and at other points in the Monument, provided you search diligently for them. Keep your camera with you that you might take home the proof that your imagination was not too active after all.

MAY BE RECALLED TO ACTIVE DUTY

National Guard, War and reserve officers separated from the service or on terminal leave may now be recalled to active duty with the Army of the United States within quotas specified by the War department. Fourteen branches of the service are open to former officers who rejoin as category I or II volunteers and are qualified for general service. This policy is to remain in effect until the Army attains a permanent postwar status.

Further information may be obtained at your local recruiting office, 490 Court Street, Captain Hal B. Sims, recruiting officer for San Bernardino, announced today.

Further need of qualified men in the commissioned ranks has also opened up to the enlisted men the opportunity of attending any one of 13 officer candidate schools. Also open at this time are over 200 technical schools for training men in military occupations. These skills learned in the army have a comparable civilian counterpart such as machinist, electrician and many others.

- Farm News -

RATS:

They're carriers of disease. They're destructive of processed feed and stored goods of all kinds. The cost of maintaining our rat population is tremendous, believes N. L. McFarlane of the Agricultural Extension Service, University of California.

Rats are making serious inroads into feed supplies, and these days when every pound is vitally needed to maintain livestock, feed destruction by rats should be prevented, he states.

Rats carry fleas and mites capable of transmitting Bubonic Plague, encephalitis (sleeping sickness) and typhus. In addition, their bite is a serious wound, according to health authorities.

Add their destructive power to the health menace, and there is an ample argument for an intensive rat eradication campaign, McFarlane believes. He particularly urges farmers to eliminate the pests from farm buildings.

HOME GARDENS

Plant a garden and help the present world food shortage! This is the plea of the Department of Agriculture and of the President, says the San Bernardino county farm advisor.

Total food requirements in the United States are but little less now than they were during the war—a small per cent of the total being the difference in the amount consumed by your millions of soldiers and sailors as compared with their needs as civilians. The world is so short of food, we must help by exporting, and that means your garden is as important now as during the war.

VISITORS FROM LONG BEACH

Mr. Oscar B. Olsen and son, Richard C. and Peter Cartwright, are planning to be future residents of Joshua Tree. Their aim being to buy acreage for farming to increase the productivity of the valley.

MORE EASTER GUESTS

L. W. Haney and son were here from Los Angeles for Easter, and one thing that impresses them, is they always leave the fog at Riverside. But here in Joshua Tree the air is clearer and it is cooler. No wonder, he said, people love it here.

EASTER VACATION

Dr. Emma Clauson and daughters, Bertha and Greta Ammon, were enjoying their Easter vacation at the Desertaire Lodge, and truly spoken are the words of a noted physician, "Doctors always spend their vacation where it is healthy." They have an interest here as they own property in Joshua Tree.

"I Rise to Remark"

By CONG. JOHN PHILLIPS

Somebody must be holding a match under the Congressional thermometer, the way the heat is rising in this session.

Did you notice the outburst of propaganda on Sunday, over the radios, and the "releases" in the papers on Monday morning? I mean the 3rd and 4th, when this is written? It was about the so-called "Veterans Housing Bill."

Suppose we read the bill: The number is H. R. 4761, and the author is Mr. Patman of Texas. It is therefore the latest bright idea of that gentleman to take advantage of some current situation for personal publicity purposes. We'll let that pass, and see what it says.

"Congress declares that an emergency exists . . . insufficient facilities for housing . . . large numbers of veterans. . . ." The author himself referred to the veterans as "suckers," which may give you some idea why a lot of us are not impressed with the sincerity back of the bill.

The bill creates the "Office of Economic Stabilization" with a "Director" at $12,000 per year, who shall appoint such employees as he deems necessary. He shall have the power to "issue directives on policy, etc."

Personally, I'd like to get rid of government by directives, and get back to government by legislation, under the Constitution, but let's skip that one too, for the moment; I'm getting down to some good ones!

"The Director is authorized to require any person who deals in, sells, rents, or buys, OR OFFERS TO SELL, RENT, OR BUY, any housing accommodations — (1) to furnish information under oath; (2) to make and keep records; (3) to make reports; in respect of such dealings, sales, rentals, purchases or offers." How do you like that one? More reports eh? This time from all of us.

"The Director may by subpoena require any person to appear and testify, or to appear and produce documents, or both, at any designated place." Any court can compel compliance, etc. Do you like that any better? How would you like to come down to Washington and testify? Or go to Los Angeles, for that matter.

H. R. 4761 would give to one man more power than the people of the United States ever dreamed of giving anyone; more power than George III had when we fought him over it; more power than Hitler had in Germany. I think only one man in the world would have more power, Comrade Joe!

Now seriously, the bill wouldn't build a single house for veterans, nor for anyone else. That can be done by turning loose the power of production of America which was a factor in winning W.W.I. and W. W.II. When the OPA makes it possible to produce building materials without losing money, then there will be all the building materials we need. There is nothing of value in this bill that can not be done by the OPA without further legislation, nor any powers that do not exist under other laws.

This bill is an imposition on the veterans. I do not agree with its author that the veterans, of either war, are all "suckers." This bill is offered for political purposes. This bill is not necessary, as powers to correct the housing situation already exist. This bill is an opening wedge in an attempt to extend the vicious consumer subsidy program (which has wrecked nations in the past) to housing. This bill would establish government control over one of America's greatest industries, construction.

On page 656, of my little desk edition of Webster's Dictionary, there is the definition for the word "NO." It says "no" is a refusal; a denial; a negative vote or decision. To this I would like to add: "A word which can save the government of the United States."

I hope you agree with me.

OUR NEIGHBORS

In the Pipes Valley just over the hill from Joshua Tree one of the "Old Timers," Mr. G. N. Bussey and his partner, Walter Robbins, recently bought 160 acres and are planning a lovely Guest Ranch. They gave us a little insight on the new project of the Motion Picture company. They hold 20 sections and will construct a 300 room hotel, golf links, tennis courts swimming pools, and bungalows. We hope to report from time to time on the progress. And this is an asset to the whole valley.

THINKING OUT LOUD

When I look up at the sky
And see a soft white cloud
I wonder if it is you
Looking at me so tenderly
Just as you used to do—but
I stop to catch my breath
For I'm thinking out loud.

And when I look up to the sky
And see a star
Just coming from behind a cloud
I wonder if it is you
Winking so tenderly
Just like you used to do—but
I stop again to catch my breath
For I am thinking out loud.

From Leimert Park

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hancock of Leimert Park, Los Angeles, are spending a week's vacation in Joshua Tree, and are at the Miramonte Courts. Mr. Hancock has a Sporting Goods Store here and sees great possibilities in the need of such a store in Joshua Tree in the near future. With that in mind we hope to see the Hancocks back soon.

Veterans to Get New Homes

"Reasonable cost" is that figure which represents the amount a designated appraiser, unaffected by personal interest, favor or prejudice, would consider a fair price or cost under prevailing conditions.

Even though you are well satisfied with the home you wish to buy and you have the income to pay for it, you must still have the approval of a designated appraiser to acquire a G.I. Home Loan. These appraisers are real estate people and independent contractors selected for their knowledge and experience in realty values and building costs. They are not employees of the VA and they represent the prospective purchaser in a relationship of trust. They are located throughout Southern California and are residents of the locality in which the veteran wishes to buy. They are familiar with local values and their appraisals are a protection against "unreasonable cost and prices."

Veterans of World War II, whether they served in the U. S. Army or with the Allied forces, get first call on home construction. Their priorities are officially known as HH, and have top rating. Priorities also apply to materials for alterations and additions that will provide living quarters for veterans.

All lumber and other building material priorities are granted by the Federal Housing Authority.

Home building material priorities for evicted families is a serious problem that is being considered by government housing authorities but it is doubtful whether this group will benefit to any great extent until the available supply of building materials is considerably increased. Hardship cases are also receiving serious attention in Washington.

It is expected that within the next few days an amendment to Regulation PR-33, which implements, through private builders, the fundamental veteran home construction program, will cover this phase of the critical national housing requirements. Preferential priorities for widows of veterans in procuring new housing may also be provided by the amendment.

Sun Valley News

Mr. Leo Emig moved to his place Tuesday afternoon. Their home will be located on the corner lot east of the real estate office. Mr. Emig plans to start a brick and tile factory on the north section of his acreage.

Visitors in the valley last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wallace. Mr. Wallace plans to build a home in Sun Valley in the near future.

Mr. Harry Stafford from Wilmington Manor pitched a tent and camped on his place two days last week.

Mr. Cecil Smith had a party of friends spend the weekend camping with him. Three tents were put up, a large camp fire built and the neighbors stopped in during the course of the evening. Guests were Mrs. Cecil Smith and son, Forrest, Misses Emma Campbell, Josephine Lundwich, Joyce Eckburg, and Messrs. James Staff, George Lynch, all of Seal Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carroll and daughter, Tonia, of Hermosa Beach, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lopez.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ledesma have had as guests this last week Mrs. Ledesma's brother, Thomas F. Jewell, his wife and son Robert from Long Beach.

"Daddy's gone ahuntin'," all nine of them "ganged up" for a rabbit chase last Sunday afternoon. A lot of fun was had even though Baby will have to wait until a later date for her rabbit-skin.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Duncan have as guests Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hoover and daughter, Miss Susie Duncan of Burbank.

Genuine Leather Purses at Woody's Emporium.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. LaBorde from San Bernardino were visiting Mrs. R. L. Preston over the Easter season. Mr. LaBorde is with the Culligan Zeolite Co. of San Bernardino.

AUTHOR OF NOTE

Mrs. Jennie Rosenholtz, noted short story writer and novelist, who resides in 29 Palms, hopes the writers in and around Joshua Tree would contact her, as she hopes to get a Writers Group together from all the little communities. A get-together might develop into something very worth while in the literary world for our little corner of the world. For the most part she has found we have a common interest in Nature and all its glory that is why we are here, and we should get together and elucidate upon it.
